

Free Cosmic Cardology Weekly Forecast Emails

at Karyn Chabot

What if the 52-card deck was secret galactic technology hiding in plain sight? The playing cards are a cosmological clock and an ancient oracle, revealing stable numerical patterns that shape both personal lives and historical eras. The 52 Star Code Cardology System synthesizes Vedic astrology, gematria, numerology, Ayurveda, cartomancy, galactic technology, archetypal psychology, shamanism, and quantum physics. Would you like to receive a weekly Cosmic Cardology forecast delivered to your inbox every Saturday, exploring full and new moons, lunar stars, eclipses, energetic themes, celestial alignments, and practical guidance for the week ahead? To my knowledge, no other system blends these divination sciences into one methodology. Also, highly evolved Star Beings assisted me throughout my research and writing.

They are the Blue Sapphire Collective, who emanate 100% pure light and unconditional love. Each weekly email will carry infusions of grace, love, peace, and healing. My intention behind this creation is to help bring Cardology (The 52 Star Codes) to the world and assist you in navigating life with greater clarity, ease, and a deeper connection to the sacred rhythms of the cosmos. Just as many of us check the weather before deciding whether to bring an umbrella or pack a picnic, these forecasts offer insight into the emotional, spiritual, and energetic climate of the weeks ahead. While each of us ultimately creates our own reality and has the power to choose our response to the cosmos's impact on us, none of us is impervious to Earth's cosmology if we are in human form. We can consciously shape our own timelines through higher awareness, yet the celestial cycles themselves remain constant, providing a meaningful backdrop for our individual journeys. Astrology isn't a religion. It's a language, and the stars are the letters. I offer these weekly forecasts to you freely, with gratitude and love, until the end of the year to serve as a trusted companion, illuminating your path and reminding you that you are part of something infinitely greater.
